We are pleased to recommend without reservation the team at Archaeo Architects. Beginning with our broad concept and a long wish list of features, they interpreted virtually all of our needs and desires in a creative and artistic manner. Their interest and involvement in nearly every aspect of our home resulted in the harmonious integration of architecture with landscaping and interior design.

Archaeo's creativity and vision were complemented by a keen attention to detail and the ability to work well with our builder, various subcontractors and a variety of specialists. There was a huge amount of paperwork generated from such a complex project; we were particularly pleased with their overall organization and continued grip on all the details during the construction management phase.

While the beauty of our home stands as evidence of Archaeo's talent and ingenuity, we were delighted with the overall collaboration between all parties. The end result far exceeded our expectations.

Sincerely,
